Hello Everyone! My name is Andrew Kipps. I am the new Director of Activities. I am very excited to join the team here at Bellaire. I am originally from New Market, Virginia, and currently live in Mount Sidney.

I graduated from Longwood University with a Bachelors Degree in Exercise Science. I have worked for the last 4 years at Virginia Mennonite Retirement Community.

In my free time I enjoy going to yard sales. I also enjoy trivia nights with my friends weekly, and flag football in the Harrisonburg Men's Football League. I am very excited to work with and get to know everyone here at Bellaire!

Resident Spotlight

Bellaire would like to welcome Lois Dovel to the community. Lois has been a resident here since July 2018. She was born and raised in Elkton, Virginia with 7 sisters and 4 brothers. Lois was happily married to her late husband Bob Dovel and has 3 children, 3 grandchildren, and 5 great grandchildren. Lois worked at RMH for 25 years in the dining and catering department and loved what she did.

She enjoys the beautiful surroundings here, but more importantly the atmosphere and people. She enjoys getting to know her neighbors as well as the wonderful staff. Welcome to the family Ms. Dovel!

Associate of the Month

Congratulations To Monike Johnson! Monike joined our Bellaire team in April 2018. She has been a Registered Medical Assistant since 2011. She explains that she enjoys helping and taking care of people. Monike enjoys the residents here and getting to know them all. She loves both, her coworkers and residents, kindness and appreciation! We are so happy you joined our team! Congratulations again Monike!!

Canine War Heroes

Military working dogs have a long legacy of brave acts during combat. During National Service Dog Month in September, salute some of history's heroic canines:

Sallie. A Staffordshire bull terrier, Sallie was the mascot of the 11th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry during the Civil War. At the Battle of Gettysburg, she was separated from her unit and discovered three days later guarding wounded soldiers. A bronze statue of Sallie is part of a monument at the historic battle site.

Stubby. This stray bull terrier mutt gained fame for his courageous deeds in World War I. His sharp hearing and sense of smell warned Army troops of incoming shells and gas attacks. Stubby received numerous honors.

Chips. Trained as an Army sentry, Chips was a mix of German shepherd, collie and husky. He became the most famous military dog of World War II for his heroism at the 1943 invasion of Sicily, where he charged into gunfire to attack enemy soldiers, forcing their surrender.

Nemo. While serving as a sentry in the Air Force during the Vietnam War, this German shepherd showed great bravery when he and his handler were hit by enemy fire. Despite severe injuries, Nemo leaped at their attackers, giving the airman time to radio for reinforcements.

Wit & Wisdom

"Knowledge is the treasure of a wise man."
—William Penn

"The possession of knowledge does not kill the sense of wonder and mystery. There is always more mystery."
—Anais Nin

"To acquire knowledge, one must study; but to acquire wisdom, one must observe."
—Marilyn vos Savant

"Science knows no country, because knowledge belongs to humanity, and is the torch which illuminates the world."
—Louis Pasteur

"Nature is the source of all true knowledge. She has her own logic, her own laws, she has no effect without cause nor invention without necessity."
—Leonardo da Vinci

"Studying whether there's life on Mars or studying how the universe began, there's something magical about pushing back the frontiers of knowledge."
—Sally Ride

"Let us tenderly and kindly cherish, therefore, the means of knowledge. Let us dare to read, think, speak and write."
—John Adams

Memorable Melody:

'You're a Grand Old Flag'

A conversation with a Civil War veteran inspired the lyrics of this patriotic march, written by Broadway star George M. Cohan for his 1906 stage musical "George Washington Jr." The rousing tribute to the American flag declares, "Ev'ry heart beats true under red, white and blue," and uses familiar lines from other famous songs, including "Yankee Doodle Boy" and "Auld Lang Syne." During World War I, the tune's popularity soared, and it became the first song from a musical to sell more than 1 million copies of sheet music.

"This Month In History"

SEPTEMBER

1902: Considered the first sci-fi movie, "A Trip to the Moon" is a sensation when it's first shown in Paris. French filmmaker Georges Melies pioneered the genre with his 14-minute silent feature.

1919: The American Legion is established by Congress as a patriotic veterans organization.

1921: In Atlantic City, N.J., 16-year-old Margaret Gorman is crowned the first Miss America.

1930: Newspaper readers are introduced to the characters Blondie and Dagwood when the comic strip "Blondie" debuts.

1957: The Brooklyn Dodgers play their last game at Ebbets Field, and the New York Giants play for the last time at the Polo Grounds. Both MLB teams moved to California.

1964: "Fiddler on the Roof" opens on Broadway. The classic musical would go on to win nine Tony Awards.

1970: "Monday Night Football" premieres. The first game broadcast had the Cleveland Browns hosting the New York Jets.

1981: Sandra Day O'Connor becomes the first female U.S. Supreme Court justice.

1995: Dozens of music legends help celebrate the opening of the new Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland.

2009: After 57 years, the daytime soap opera "Guiding Light" airs its final episode. It was the longest-running TV drama in American history.

2016: Watch your step! A giant fossilized dinosaur footprint, believed to be 130 million years old, is discovered on a beach in Australia.
